

A "Home-Run" Trip to GuangDong 家鄉廣東行

It has been a longtime since my last visit to my hometown province - GuangDong, China.
This recent "home-run" proved to be a wonderful experience and a badly needed one...

An aerial photograph of a winter landscape. The terrain is covered in a mix of evergreen and deciduous trees, many of which are heavily laden with snow. In the upper left corner, there is a small, light-colored building with a dark roof, possibly a house or a small industrial structure. To its right, a small, dark pond or stream is visible, partially surrounded by snow. The overall scene is a dense, snow-covered forest, typical of a winter in a temperate or cold climate.

On the way back to Canada, looking down from the airplane,
Halifax was still in a siege of deep winter..

回程加拿大，从飞机上俯瞰大地，
无奈始终是严冬.....
